BURZUM

AN INTERVIEW WITH VARG VIKERNES

Well Varg, I guess everybody must know the famous Burzum/Mayhem story by now. You were a member of the Inner Circle, a group of satanic terrorists. Can you tell me what viewpoints the Inner Circle shared?

Varg: Well, I guess quite a lot of people know a story, but no doubt the version they know is fiction - more or less. Like when you talk about me being a member of "The Inner Circle", "a group of satanic terrorists", and so forth, that is complete crap. I won't accuse you of being an idiot or particulary easy to fool, nor will I accuse anybody else who believe in these mendacious stories to be idiots or the like, but I think it is quite amazing how much trust people have in the jew-press. Have you ever considered that what the jew-press, and others, are telling you might be lies, and that they may have a motive for spreading these lies?

There has never been an "Inner Circle" or any "Satanic terrorists" in Norway. Aarseth (a.k.a. Euronymous) had a record company. My band Burzum was for a time released on his label, and that is about everything that I ever had to do with him. He -on the other hand- wanted to make his label something special, so he created a myth around it which was purely fiction. This myth is what people believe to be facts today. When Vikings burned down judeo-christian churches, he took credit for it. When Vikings gained a lot of support from youth in Norway, he did his best to make them support him instead. Some believed "Satanic terrorists" were behind it all, others -more enlightened people- believed "modern" Vikings were behind everything. The latter group was right. However, the judeo-christian media did their best to support the lie that "Satanic terrorists" were behind it, as they know Paganism is a far bigger threat to them than some other judeo-christian religion, like "satanism" is. So, you "all" believe in a jewish lie, and by continuing to spread this lie, you serve the cause of judeo-christians! Do you get the point?

So, when the arsons started, there were other motives than merely a satanic statement?

The Vikings in Norway acted on their believes long before the lie about an "Inner Circle" was even thought about. Obviously the knowledge about European history is very poor in Europe, at least when it comes to the Vikings. I will give you an example, but first I will tell you a bit about when the first church was attacked in Norway - in modern times of course- by Vikings. Fantoft Stavechurch was burned the sixth of June in 1992 a.y.p.s. The Stavechurch was built in early middle-ages (i.e. around the eleventh century). It was sited in Hordaland, western Norway.

When we look at the records of history, we can find out that the Viking-age began with an attack on a monastery in England - Lindisfarne, a.k.a the "Holy Island". This monastery was the head of the "christianisation" of Norway. From there the missionaries were sent to Norway.
This monastery was attacked and looted, the monks and other "holy" men were slaughtered and the monastery itself was burned to the ground. This attack was made by a group of Chieftains from Hordaland, Norway. They were tired of the judeo-christians who tried to push this new religion on the Norwegians. This attack was made the sixth of June 793 a.y.p.s. So, the sixth of June is the date that marks the beginning of the Viking age, both in 793, and in 1992.

So, how come people believe some idiotic "Satanic terrorists" were behind this? And then we get to the motives of the judeo-christians for spreading their lies. Most likely, you have heard of the saying "Save us from the fury of the Norsemen". Well, what do you think they fear the most, some ridiculous new judeo-christian group like this fictionary "Inner Circle", or a new Viking age? What is most likely to succeed in throwing the jews and their ludicrous lying religions (like catholicism, protestantism, satanism, islam, greek/russian orthodoxism; jehova's witnesses, and so on) out of Europe? Just another jewish religion like "satanism", or the native religion of all the European natives?

Yes, when I say paganism, I mean Wotanism for the Norse-Germanic peoples, "Jupiterism" for the Roman peoples, "Zevsism" for the Greek peoples and so on. The Greek, Roman, Celtic and Norse-Germanic paganism are all Aryan religions. Skandinavia was the last place in Europe to be christianised (and it was hardly ever complete), it is only natural that Skandinavia is the first place to get rid of this anti-human death religion with so many names. But, this can only happen if the rest of Europe realizes that "satanism" has nothing to do with this honourable battle against judeo-christianity. Heil Europa; let us make her Aryan, like she originally was!

So, after a while things didn't really work out between you and Aarseth. Can you sketch the events?
Things didn't really work out between me and Aarseth, or better between

Øystein Aarseth

Burzum and his label, first of all because he did a miserable job with his label. Later I found out he was a communist, and even more disgusting things. So, I didn't want anything to do with him, and I found a new label for Burzum (Cymophane Productions). At the same time, a lot of people in Norway were tired of his bullshit concerning the fictionary "Inner Circle", and most people began to realize the truth behind the attacks on the judeo-christians. He lost his influence, and "of course" I was to blame. Fewer and fewer wanted anything to do with him, and at the same time I gained a lot of support. He had to live in a cheap "hotel" when in Bergen, to finish the Mayhem album. Nobody even wanted to give him a room to sleep while he was there.

He blamed everything on me, and told some friends of his that he intended to kill me, he even told them how. These "friends" were pretty tired of him as well, so one of them phoned me and told me what was going on. Of course, I was pretty pissed when I found out he planned to knock me out with an electroshock gun, then tie me up and transport me into some desolate wood, where he was supposed to torture me till death while filming it all. So, I went to his place, pretty pissed, to tell him to "fuck off" - to put it that way. However, when I showed up he was so frightened that he panicked and attacked me. You know the result of that attack.

Over the years, your appearance has changed a lot. Does it have to do with a change in your viewpoints?

My viewpoints haven't really changed, however, I no longer misuse notions - that is, I now use the correct words for things.

My looks have changed a lot? Well, have they? It is right I coloured my hair black, in 1992 a.y.p.s., but this was to make me look more like a living dead. Dark hair makes the skin look even paler. I did this because of the Oskorei/ Åsgardsrei-concept, where the warriors are undead. The Army of Wotan, riding across the sky, the Army of the Dead. So, I did my best to look like one of those. However, the colour didn't last very long, turning to red after a while, and I didn't bother to colour it again as I didn't like it very much.

Today I look more like I did when I was in my early and middle teens, with the exception that I no longer wear any "dongeri" (you know, Levi's and such). Also, I try to keep it more thorough. I do not like to wear Levi's because it is a jewish brand, and so forth.

So it is true that you were a National Socialist Skinhead before you met Aarseth? What are your thoughts concerning National Socialism and communism?
I have always been a National Socialist. I have supported the NS ideology since the day I became conscious. When I was in my early teens, I shaved my hair off and became more active. Later, I let my hair grow, so that I could look like a norsemen aswell. Today I am like I was before, a skinhead. "Once a skinhead, always a skinhead", no hairstyle can change that.

My thoughts on National Socialism and communism? National Socialism is life itself, the one and only rescue for Europa. Communism is just another jewish ideology, like capitalism and the jewish religions. Lenin was a jew, Karl Marx was a jew, and so on.

And what about Hellhammer? He has apparent National-Socialist sympathies. How was it possible that he got along with Aarseth?
Who told you he got along with Aarseth? Anyway, I think it is BECAUSE he knew Aarseth that he doesn't judge me. He knew what a pathetic liar he was. Hellhammer even made jokes to me and the other Mayhem members, that we should kill Aarseth so that the band could start to work. And this was actually months before he actually was killed. When I talked to Hellhammer on the phone the same day Aarseth was killed, he was phoning to hear if it was I who killed him (and of course I had to lie and tell him no), at the same time he didn't actually "sound very sad" to put it that way. Hellhammer, like the other Mayhem-members, was sick and tired of Aarseth taking all credit for what the band did. Especially Hellhammer did all the work, while Aarseth took all the credit for it. To put it short, Aarseth was dispensable, Hellhammer was not. And of course, the political differences made the whole thing even worse.

As for the people who "judge" me, let them do as they please, however I find it strange that even anybody sides with a pathetic, lying, communist-bastard like "Euronymous". Losers support other losers you know.

You released the "Dauði Baldrs" album. In the past, you didn't have the opportunity to make music in jail. How did this change?
I had the opportunity to record an album for some months in 1995, so I did - on a computer. Now I don't even have the "opportunity" to have a walk-man in my cell.

Why didn't you choose from the art of Kittelsen for the new album? Who did the artwork this time?
A woman named Tania made the visual art (especially) for "Dauði Baldrs". I selected the artwork on Hvis Lyset Tar Oss from a collection of Kittelsen drawings called "The Black Death", in this context meaning the spiritual black death -judeo-christianity. The "Filosofem" art is from different Kittelsen collections.

Is it true that the "Einsatz" shirts will be taken out of print? Isn't this kind of censorship typical?
I do not know if the "Einsatz" shirts will be taken out of print, but I do know the T-shirt is selling extremely well. No doubt, NS-people and our work face more problems than anybody else, because of our ideology.

How do you feel about the Nordic Metal album? What is your relationship with bands like Abruptum, Dissection, Emperor, Mysticum, Marduk, Enslaved,... as they refer to you as "wimp", "traitor", ... pretty childish words from the spawn of darkness, don't you think?
Well, I have never heard of this album. My relation to the following bands is:

Abruptum	"It" is a 1,5 m tall gypsy. Need I say more?
Dissection	I have heard of them, but that's about it. Who are they anyway?
Emperor	Police informers
Mysticum	Never heard of them
Marduk	I know "Evil" from Abruptum is in this band, and that is about everything I know about them.
Enslaved	Police informers

Okay, let us call me a "wimp", but what does that make "Euronymous"? If he attacked me - a "wimp" - and ended up loosing the fight, and his life by the hands of a "wimp", isn't it pretty logical that he is even more "wimpy" than I am? Hahahaha. Well, seriously, I find these guys completely uninteresting and self-contradictory. I never give them a thought, except when I have fun with them in interviews like this. Simply ignore them. Who cares what gypsies and police-informers say anyway? They are just pissed on me because I was more fit for survival than their homosexual communist "hero" (Euronymous), and now the "evil misantrophes" are mourning over the death of some pathetic heavy-metal jerk. What happened to their "Might is Right", "Survival of the Fittest" and other slogans? Maybe it is just an image for them, and the only way for them to get attention is by talking shit about me?

Varg Vikernes

Will your book Vargsmål be translated?
My debut book will most likely not be translated into English or German. It is translated into Danish, and will perhaps be translated into Swedish, but that's it. It is a book for Scandinavians really, written from a Scandianavian perspective. This is not final however. Maybe we will translate the book into other languages anyway. It depends on a lot of other things. My next books will be written for a wider audience - so to speak.

Concerning Germanic paganism, do you think that Odinism was/is one big religion for the whole of Germania, or are there deep differences?
The differences are few, and only minor. Ásatrú, or Odinism if you want, was and IS a religion for all of Germania (including Skandinavia and all other areas inhabited by Norse-Germanic peoples). In continental Germania we have Wotan or Wodan and Donar or Donnar, in British Germania we have Woden and Thunor, in Skandinavian Germania we have Odin or Oden or Odinn, and Tor or Thor or Thórr. But, they are all the same -only different names. Wotan und Donar.

Do you worship the gods as being divine or rather being symbolic entities?
The Æsir and the Vanir are divine, symbolic, biological and historic. They are everything, depending on what you want them to be.

Naturally, you are proud of being Norse-Germanic. Are there other peoples or races you sympathize with?
The Norse-Germanic people are the most homogenous of the Aryan peoples. The role of our people is thus very important. Some of the Aryan peoples are lost, like the Sumers, the Iranians, the Afghans, the Indians and the Egyptians. They are lost, and that is forever, due to interbreeding. Other Aryan (or perhaps "originally" Aryan) peoples, like the Greeks, the Romans, the Slavonic and some others, are "repairable" through eugenics. The Celts are fairly homogenous, and even the Norse-Germanic people need some "repairs" - especially in Europa (well, of course Skandinavia is a part of Europa aswell, but I have a tendency to "forget" this, so...).

Originally all these peoples consisted of blonde and blue-eyed (that is blue- or grey-eyed), fair-skinned individuals. And it is our aim to return to such greatness, not through murdering everybody who is not "pure enough", but through eugenics. It will take a while, but it shall happen. Non-European peoples however ... let us just say the Holocaust-lie will most likely be made truth in the future.

Don't the ancient Egyptians and the Sumers differ a lot from the other Aryans? Aren't they Semitic?
The Sumers were Aryans, but their slaves were Semitic. The Mesopotamians were Semitic however. The rulers of Egypt were Aryans aswell., but not the people. Most of the drawings from ancient Egypt have been re-coloured by people living today. The original art showed (and some still shows) WHITE rulers, together with coloured peasants, slaves and the like. They were the tribes of the Aryan race who perished, along with the Iranian tribe, the Indian tribe, the tribes that migrated to China, and the others. Only the tribes that travelled to Europa survived -some only barely. YOU SHOULD NOT TRUST OFFICIAL HISTORY, IT IS FULL OF LIE PROPAGANDA!

Before World War II, you could even read in encyclopedias that White people are different from other races. It was proved that Whites' IQ's were 15 points higher than blacks, and that we have a different physiology up to cell level, etc. What are your comments on this, and what are your specific viewpoints concerning this matter?

As a Norwegian National Socialist I know a great deal about this, as it were Norwegian scientists who knew the most about this subject (closely followed by German and American scientists). I have read a lot about this, scientific material from the Racehygienic Institute in Oslo, and it is beyond any doubt that the Aryan Race differs from all the others. And of course, there are differences between the Aryan peoples, depending on how "Aryan" they are actually.

The facts are, as you say, deleted from the encyclopedias after the second world war. They were deleted simply because lying is a part of the judeo-christian ideology. The scientific facts can only promote racism as an obvious thing, people would not have made childeren with individuals of other races if they knew the consequences, and not least, nobody would have accepted the misantrophic and anti-human judeo-christian religions if they knew the facts about human genealogy. Judeo-christianity has as main goal the destruction of all homogenous races so that their strong power of resistance against jewish misantrophy would collapse. The only thing that prevents judeo-christian anti-life worshipping to become dominant on Mother Earth is OUR PURE BLOOD. By destroying this, through interbreeding, they will achieve their goal. Our pure blood is our strongest weapon against jew-worship. This is why judeo-christians import alien races into Europa, excused as "humanitarian work to help those in need". This is why they attacked Germany in the first place. Germany was a healthy and sane nation, who got rid of jewish influences - more or less. So, when this fresh and healthy wave spread across Europa, the jew-power organized and attacked just after Germany declared that it would take back the lands that rightfully belonged to Germany in the east. After crushing the healthy plant on Mother Earth, Hitler-Germany, the jew-power did their best to destroy the facts, concerning most things actually. They invented a lot of crap to keep the Aryan spirit down, like the lie about the "Holocaust", and so on. You know the rest, how does Europa look like today?

I guess this Racehygienic institute is closed by now... is there any way to access their studies?

The institute was shut down just after WWII, by the New Zionist Occupational Government, that got the power in Norway after Germany's (temporarily) surrender. I got their results of the work they published, handed over to me by old NS-people.

Another great plan of all European countries is the European Community. Lots of people oppose to it. Poor southern countries get the chance to become parasites, living of the strong economies of western and northern European countries. Do you have an alternative of the European Community?

Yes. First of all, divide France into four. Alsace-Lorraine goes back to Germany, Bretagne becomes a new state. The rest is divided between Rome and Germania. Northern parts of France shall be handed over to Germania, like Normandie, and the rest to Rome. Great-Britain is perhaps divided into a Germanic part (England), and a Celtic part (Scotland, Wales and the parts of England just south of Wales), Northern Ireland is handed over to Eire, and to stop the fighting in Northern Ireland, the protestants are given two options: get the hell out of Ireland back to England, where most of them come from anyway, or become catholics. Of course, both of these jewish religions shall be crushed, and replaced by the Celtic paganism in these areas.

Poland shall hand back all territories taken from Germany. Spain, Italy, Portugal and parts of Yugoslavia shall make up the new Rome. Northern Africa shall be handed over to Rome aswell, making it Roman colonies. Greece shall be handed over all the territories in the neighbouring lands they want, like areas in Turkey, Macedonie perhaps, and more. In short, Europe shall consist of only THREE nations; a Celtic, a Germanic and a Roman. Each of these nations shall be divided into many small areas, like Denmark, Schleswig-Holstein, Pommern, Saxony, Bayern, Wallonica , Normandie, Vlaanderen, Ostmark, Böhmen, Thuringen, Gotland, Svearíket, Norway, and so on. All these areas have a council ruling it's territory and a representant in the Germanian council, seated in Berlin.

All territories may keep their native language, but everybody in Germania must also learn German fluently (simply because it is the most common Germanic language in Europa), so that everyone can understand each other.

In Rome, the structure shall be the same, as with the Celt nation. But of course, all Celts learn English (but only if England is part of the Celtic nation) instead of German, and all Romans learn Italian, or Latin instead of German or English.

It might be necessary to include ALL White nations in a Germania, even the USA, South-Africa, Australia, and the other White nations (well, they will be White after we have finished...). The goal is to make the whole world Aryan, and then start to colonize the universe. But first of all, we need to cleanse our Mother Earth, remove all "genetic garbage" from the face of our planet. A united White world can do as it pleases on this planet, nobody can threaten us. Then we can start to carpet-bomb China....
In short, the alternative for the jewish "European" Community is GERMANIA!!!!!

In conclusion, what will you do when you will be free again? Will you try to get out of the picture, and lead a quiet life, or will you use your fame for other purposes?
There is little needed to be said, you will know what you need to know when you need to know it ... got it? I have no comments on my personal plans for the future, for many reasons. Save on perhaps; MEINE EHRE HEIßT TREUE! That'll be all for now. Hail the fourteen words. Hail to all co-religionists out there! The future belongs to us! Heil WOTAN!

Thank you for the interview Herr Vikernes!

REALITY TIME

Sometimes I receive so-called "White-Power" propaganda from the U.S.A. Most of it is alright; sensible and intelligent, and at least pretty much in accordance with our version of history.

However I do receive some so-called "White-Power" propaganda from the U.S.A. that really puzzles me, or actually it stuns me. From time to time I read articles by Americans who advocate Christianity, or so called Identity Christianity. They claim that we -the Aryan race- are the "true Israelites" and they talk about "Yaweh" as being our God. At first I thought it was a bad joke, but then I understood that these guys are actually serious. They believe that we are the "true Israelites". They claim the Hebrew mythology (id est the bible) is our "holy book" -so to speak.
For any person with even basic historical knowledge this theory, known as the "British-Israel theory", is nothing but a misconception and a delusion. The Aryan tribes all have a common origin, known to us as Atlantis. This is not proven historically alright, but it is proven that the Aryan race -id est the so called Indo-European, Caucasian or simply the White race- has it's origin in Europa and in Caucasia.

The Brittish-Israel theory states that we come from Israel, or at least that we have lived there for some time -including the time around the birth of Jesus. They claim Jesus was an Aryan as well. Then they claim the Aryan race emigrated to Europe and that the Celt settlement in what is Turkey today is a "proof" of this.

The problem is that this theory is obviously wrong. The first Celt settlement in Europa was in the southern part of Germany and in Austria. Known to us as the Hallstatt culture. This was in around 700 years before our time of reckoning. As if that is not enough, the Celts -or Galls as they seamingly called themselves- have existed in Europa even longer than that. They were called Celts or Galls from year 700 before our time of reckoning and onwards, but before that they were known as "the Urnfield people". They got their Celt name simply because they moved from being a "bronze-age people" to being an "iron-age people". Another name for the Urnfield people is "proto-Celts", so there is no doubt about this.

As for the Celt settlement in what is Turkey today, that has a reasonable explanation as well. The Celts expanded their new culture across large parts of Europe, and into Asia. They spread to Northern Italia (Gallia Cisalpina), to the Iberian Peninsula (Galicia), to France (Gallia), to Eire, to the Brittish Isles and to Turkey (Galatia). They also spread to Rome, Delphi in Greece, to Scythia (Ukraina or even further eastwards), and they pushed the Germanic tribes further north as well. All this between the 5th and 3rd century before our time of reckoning.

In other words, the settlements in Galatia (Turkey) came from Europa, and not the other way around.

The Slavonic people spread across parts of Europa from an area in what is today Rumania. The history of the Greeks and the Romans is all well known, so I will not discuss that here.

Other Aryan tribes spread out from Caucasia into large parts of Asia. They settled in north-western China, in the Indus valley, in Aria (Iran/Persia), in Sumèr (Iraq), in Al-Khem (Egypt) and other places as well.

Some tribes landed on the American continent, after Atlantis was covered with ice. Here they created High-Cultures, like the Eurasian tribes did, but like most Asian tribes they went under due to interbreeding, mixing blood with the native population. The Sumèr culture was even conquerred in it's closing days, by Semitic tribes attacking from the west (Syria, Jordan, Israel/Palestine) in the year 1890 before our time of reckoning (id est about 3900 years ago) - founding a new civilization on the ruins of the old, the new being known as the Mesopotamian culture. Needless to say this means the lands of Israel was even then settled by Semitic peoples.

At that time - for those who will point at the exodus of the Israelites from Egypt -Egypt had already lost it's Aryan tribe (through interbreeding with the native population). The last Aryans dissappeared from Egypt in 2550 before our time of reckoning at the latest. Henceforth all the peoples of the Middle-East and Egypt are of non-Aryan origin.

Then moving on to the most racially pure of the Aryan tribes; the Teutonic (Germanic) people.

We have lived in the area around what is known as Denmark and northern Germany for tens of thousands of years. In Norway we have proof of Teutonic settlements aging back to 11000 years before our time of reckoning! The only newcomers to Scandinavia since then is the coming of the Sami/Lapp population (from Asis) to the northern parts around years zero.

We know that our forefather Mannuz came to our lands, with his tribe from across the sea from Atlantis around 4000 years ago. His three sons, Ingæv (also known as Ing, Frøyr, Yngvi, etc.), Hermin and Istæv founded the three first Teutonic tribes. We have rock carvings from the old Scandinavian stone-age

(from about 11000 years before our time of reckoning to 4000 years before our time of reckoning) showing Mannuz and his father Tuisto (also known as Nerþus, later Frîg/Frîja), her husband Tiwaz (also known as Tyr, Ziu, Tiw, Tig, etc.) and other Teutonic Gods and Goddesses.

The tribes that derived from the three first tribes are, to give some examples, the Usips, Firs, Batavs, Tungrs, Aravisks, Osers, Trevers, Nervirs, Vangions, Triboks, Nemeters, Ubiers, Mattiakers, Chatters, Tenkters, Brukterers, Chamavers, Angrivariers (Angriv- ARIERS!), Chaukers, Forsers, Kimbry (Cimry), Teutoners, Germaners, Ambroners, Semnoners, Reudigners, Aviaoners, Variners, Eudosers, Svardoners, Nuitoners, Hermundurers, Thuringi (giving the name to Thüringen in Germany today), Markomaners, Naristers, Kvaders, Marsigners, Kotiners, Burers, Sarmaterns, Lugiers, Hariers (H-ARIERS!), Helvekoners, Manimiers, Helisiers, Nahanarvalers, Suiones (Svedes), Goths, Langobards, Angles, Rugiers, Lomoviers, Hordas, Halogii, Ranii, Arochi, Rugi, Augandzi, Raumers, Greners, Raners, and so on. All of these tribes had their origin in Scandinavia and northern Germany. The name Scandinavia itself is derived from Skaðin-awjõ (meaning: the Isles of Skaði, and for those who do not know, Skaði is a Teutonic Goddess).

Aryan is an old Sanskrit word meaning "noble, loyal to the Gods, of high birth", etc. Sanskrit was the language of the Aryan tribes living in the Indus Valley.

In other words; we know perfectly well whence we come, and anybody who claims we come from somewhere else, like from Israel, should faster than ever before shut up and face the fact that we do not.

I have already mentioned the false claim that the Celt settlement in Turkey, Galatia, came from Israel, but I can point at other false "evidence" in support of the British-Israel theory; the claim that Denmark (Danmark in most Teutonic languages) got it's name from the Israelite tribe of Dan.

Before the landmasses we today call Denmark got it's current name it was called Fyn, Sjælland and Jylland. The Jutes invaded Logres (known to us as England) from Jylland in the Scandinavian Iron-Age. The Angles invaded Logres from Fyn and Sjælland in the same era. The Saxons as well invaded Logres at the time, but from southern Jylland and mostly northern Germany. That is why we call Englishmen and Americans of northern-European descent "Anglo-Saxons". Before any of these above mentioned tribes, the Kymbri (Cimry) invaded Logres. The Kimbry came from Jylland as well.

Then the Viking era begins. The Danes were known to Norwegians, Swedes and Germans as "Skjoldungar" at that time, meaning "Childeren of Skjold" (Skjold being a son of Wuotan - also known as Wõtan, Gwodan, Wodan, Woden, Oden, Òðinn, Odin, Woðu, Godan, etc.). During the Viking age the Danes were Christianized - with force of course. They then started to send missionaries to Christianize the Swedes and Norwegians as well - aiding the other European powers at the time in their de-Paganization of Scandinavia.

Mentioning this I can point at a not very known fact concerning the Viking age, that it actually began due to the attacks on Scandinavia and northern Germany by the Christian powers (trying to force their faith unto us) and not the other way around!

At this point the Norwegians and the Swedes started to call the Danes "Churchlords", as that was what they really were, men of the Church trying to Christianize us, and we called their lands the "Churchlord-fields". This was in the late Viking age -id est around the year 900 in our time of reckoning. If we translate these words into Norse (old Norwegian/Swedish/Danish) it becomes "Danes" (Churchlords) and "Dan-mark" (Churchlord-field).

In other words, the name has absolutely nothing to do with the Israelite tribes of Dan! So this "evidence" in support over the British-Israel theory holds no truth either!

Then a new question arises; if the British-Israel theory is a lie, why do so many people actually believe in it? The answer is simple, and I can quote Nietzsche, who said that "the Jews have through their work made Christianity so thoroughly false that even a Christian can feel anti-jewish today, without understanding that he himself is THE MOST EXTREME JEWISH CONSEQUENCE!". Instead of taking the consequence of the fact that their faith is all-Jewish, they desperately try to twist the truth. They have sold their souls to a Jewish "God" and have serious problems accepting the fact as it is. Instead of disassociating themselves from this Jewish fable they cling to it with extreme fanatism. They do all they can to convince themselves (and everybody else for that sake) that it is "really" Aryan, and that they are the "true God's chosen people" after all and that the Jews have stolen their heritage. It is really just sad, and actually it is not an ideological or religious problem; it is a problem for medical science. It is a masspsychosis, a spiritual plague.

Even the Jews themselves laugh at them and their theory. As early as 1925 a Rabbi wrote an article in "Century Magazine", under the title "A real case against the Jews" that; "We have thrown your culture off the road, and replaced it with our culture. Our God. Our faith. Our laws. We have made you agents of our people."

That is just what Christians are - willingly or unwillingly; agents of the Jews! It were Christians who burned down the library in Alexandria around the year 200 in our time of reckoning. It were Christians who destroyed everything Aryan in Europe, as good as they could, when they forced their Jewish faith unto the Aryan peoples of Europe - with the most dishonourable means one can possibly imagine. It were Christians who slaughtered our ancestors who stayed faithful to the Aryans Gods and Goddesses. It were Christians who burned all our Holy sites, and who built temples of worship for a Jewish "God" on the ruins. It were Christians who burned one million Aryan women and men on the stake, because they tried to keep parts of the Aryan culture alive. One million, mostly women and girls, who were tortured for years, who were systematically raped and then burned alive! Can you imagine how they suffered? It were Christians who condemned everything Aryan to Hell forever! It was Christianity who made our Aryan race coward and degenerate! Christianity has been the origin of everything evil in Europe since it arrived here!

To quote a Saxon chieftain, who responded to the Christians' comment that all Pagans go to Hell; "I will rather burn in Hell with my forefathers, than go to Heaven with you!"

Then we continue, to the next question; who are these people, who propagate and advocate this Brittish-Israel theory? It is mostly, if not exclusively, Americans. So who are these Americans? They come from Europe alright - that is the White population of America of course. That is common knowledge, but what is not that well known is what type of Europeans emigrated to "the New World" in the first place. What is a fact that a lot of these were Judeo-Christian sects who led to avoid further persecution here in Europe. Also the least resourceful and poorest had to sell everything they had to get a ticket to America, to survive! Famine and extreme poverty were widespread in Europe at the time, overpopulation and decay. In Norway -and propably in other countries- some towns and villages actually collected money so that they could buy tickets to America for the scum of the town or village. To get rid of them of course, as they were a problem. Criminals fled to America to escape punishment here in Europa as well.

I will make it perfectly clear that not all White Americans are of this bad "quality", but it is clear that the same fanatic sects that fled to America in the 19th century and earlier are the very origin of the sick and twisted religious theories of the U.S.A. of today, like the British-Israel theory. We have the sickening "In God we Trust" slogan, the widespread belief in "God", and a system extremely Hebrew in nature, all because of these sick and degenerate sects! The more Christian an American is, the more likely he is to descend from some of these degenerate Judeo-Christian fanatics. Known to some as "genetic garbage". They had to flee from Europa in order to continue their sick religious practice, and one of the results of this is the "Identity Christianity".

A people whose roots are strong cannot be vanquished. Nature's Law and the ethnic mythos of a healthy race have an unalterable hereditary bond, replete in their time-tested ancestral deities. It is the measure of a collective thought and will, a path to higher being on the heroic foundation of ages; it is a CREED of IRON!

Through millennia Wotanism has navigated the folk-soul of Western man, Nature and that great mystery of life which manifests from the One. Nowhere are the essentials of Wotanism better presented in one dynamic volume than in this Wotansvolk manifesto, CREED of IRON, the consummate guidebook for all practicing Wotanists.

Then another question; what did Adolf Hitler and his Comrades and idols say about all this? Adolf Hitler stated in 1940 that he would "exterminate Christianity in Germany, lock, stock and barrel, with all it's roots and branches". Heinrich Himmler stated under a speech for SS-Volunteers in Zagreb, the 3rd of August 1941, that "those who swear loyalty to the Hakenkreuz must hate all other crosses, and fight them." Martin Bormann stated in 1942 that "National-Socialist and Christian opinions are incompatible". Rudolf Hess stated the 13th of July that Germany intented to do away with Christianity as being only a Jewish fable. Adolf Hitler even stated that "it does not matter if we talk about the old or the new testament, or about Jesus' words, it is all the same nonsense. It is madness to present Jesus as an Aryan." He also said, according Rudolf Hess, that Christianity is alien to the racial understanding of the German people. Both of Adolf Hitler's favourite writers, F.W. Nietzsche and Niccoló Machiavelli, were hostile towards Christianity - I have already quoted Nietzsche on this earlier in this article. Goebbels stated that they should "take care of" the Church once the war was over - unfortunately they lost the war, and the Jewish madness (Christianity) could continue.

So, who are YOU going to listen to? To what Hitler, Bormann, Nietzsche, Himmler, Goebbels, Hess and not least to what our Pagan forefathers said? Or are you going to listen to what some degenerate Americans say?

Another obvious question to the Identity Christians will be; how dare you call me and my people "Israelites"? How dare you call Adolf Hitler and "Israelite"? How dare you spit on my culture, my people, my race and everything I love and cherish like that? How dare you - with your rotten, degenerate, 300 years old, Judeo-Christian, Capitalist pig-culture - to even speak of "racial pride"? As long as you have your Jewish faith you are Artificial Jews and you shall be treated accordingly!

This British-Israel theory is not only insane, it is contraeffective and dangerous to our survival. I starts with their symbolical murder of Aryan children - which they call baptism. This is a ritual murder of the Aryan soul, they symbolically drown the Pagan man and bring him back to life as an artificial Jew, by "shouting out" the name of the Jewish soul that is to replace the Aryan one. First they destroy our Aryan soul, with Christianity, and then they use this to destroy our Aryan blood - as the resistance to this genocide has been broken down by the murder of our Aryan souls! So wake up my friends! Wake up from the Jewish sleep and reclaim your Aryan souls, by Hailing Wuotan! Fight for the truth, like our forefathers did, like the Third Reich did! Like WE do! Wake up brothers and sisters, wake up and follow the call of Wuotan! Follow the voice of your blood, of your heart! It will not lie to you! Heil Wuotan!

So who am I to say this? Why should you listen to ME? First of all, I will point at the fact that all I do here is state the facts! I quote the greatest heroes of our century, and if you do not view my words as worth any attention, then at least listen to what they said! Think about it.

THE LOST ARYANS

It is a part of the jewish/Zionist agenda to change history to their needs. Naturally, it is not very flattering for them to know that all great civilizations were founded by their natural enemy: THE ARYAN RACE. For that reason, and that reason only, history has been re-written.

The meaning of the series "The Lost Aryans" is clear: we will bring the truth about the ancient civilizations. The first episode concerns Ancient Egypt.

I. The Ancient Egyptians

Ancient Egypt was founded by Mediterranean Aryans in 4.500 a.a.y.p.s. They evolved from a Paleolithic way of life to a Neolithic way of life: they gave up hunting as main food-supply, and started to focus on farming and domesticating animals - something a pureblooded negro society is incapable of even today, but what characterizes the evolution of every Aryan society.

The Egyptian lands are in a strange, yet logical way responsible for the structure of the Egyptian state. I already stated that the Egyptian society was an agricultural one, but the Egyptian soil is far from fertile. No crops will grow on desert sand. But when the Nile floods, it leaves a layer of fertile mud on the acres.

To benefit the most from these floods, the Egyptians worked out a complex irrigation system. Because of this complex system, they learned to work together, and to accept orders from one man. This man lived in the biggest house, and was thus called "pharaoh". Pharaohs that proved to be valuable and capable, could also start to run other settlements. This territorial expansion of a pharaoh's domain finally resulted into two kingdoms in the Nile-area: Upper-Egypt (south) and Low-Egypt (north).

The first king of Upper-Egypt was called Horus, after the god Horus. Today he is better know under the name Narmer of Menes. The connection between pharaoh and gods never disappeared. It was a current motive to picture pharaohs together with the falcon (the animal form of Horus and Ra): the physical human form that is being assisted by the divine form.

The Sacral Eye

One of the most famous Egyptian symbols is without doubt the Sacral Eye. It represents the left Eye of Horus, the sun god. The pharaohs were his descendants. The Sacral Eye is a symbol of resurrection. Germanic Heathens will note the similarity between the eye of Horus and the eye of Wotan.

While inhabited and ruled by Aryans, Egypt was a promising nation. Marvelous and unseen architecture, sculpture and paintings were produced in that age. The fact that they were able to create great projects without a specific need to do so only proves their high intellect. The Ancient Egyptians studied astrology, medicine, chemistry, anatomy and law - sciences that still continue to amaze us today.

The beginning of the end

The end approached as soon as the Egyptians freed the negro slaves. Nubian negroes served the Aryans since 3400 a.a.y.p.s., but were considered inferior. When the Egyptians changed their policy towards the negro population, it meant the beginning of the end. Negroes were now able to interbreed with the Aryan population, and not only with the lower castes, but with the higher castes as well. The government was infiltrated by negro-Aryan bastards, and led to a quick and very dramatic downfall, starting during the rule of King Tut (1370-1352 a.a.y.p.s.).

The proportionality between race-mixing and cultural decay

When we compare the world-status of Ancient Egypt and Modern Egypt, it is safe to say that both have very little in common. Ancient Egypt was ruled by Aryans, and was one of the mightiest states on the face of the earth. Modern Egypt is a Third-World country, one of the poorest on the face of the earth, ruled by non-Aryans. Aryan blood is synonym for culture, might and respect!

RACIAL EQUALITY:
the myth shattered

The human race. One can hear this expression a lot, despite the fact that there is no such thing as the human race. One can speak of the human kind - consisting of different races. It just shows how strong anti-racial thinking lives in today's world. The multicultural and multiracial society is considered a dream - yet we live the nightmare every day. Big media like MTV are used to exterminate the Aryan Race. American dating shows such as "Singled out" encourage racial mixing, trying to match young Aryan man and women with mongoloids and negroids, without even thinking of the dangers of race mixing. Any defence against this extermination of Aryans is called racism and is forced into a criminal sphere.

The meaning of this article is to show the scientific side of the racialist movement; using anthropological, intellectual, cultural and historical facts and evidence. Most of the numbers and figures come from American studies. This is not a random choice: the USA is probably the country with the biggest racial problems. If things will continue in the way they do now, the whole world will look like the USA.

Anthropological

Anthropological studies show that negroes can not possibly be related to Aryans. Although today the term "Homo Sapiens Sapiens" refers to the "modern man, both black and White", it did not in earlier days. It was first used by the 18th century botanist Carolus Linnaeus, and it only referred to the Aryan Race. Many other scientists followed this theory, even Charles Darwin, author of "The evolution of species".

Although popular archeology and anthropology state that the Homo Sapiens Sapiens spread over the globe after which racial differences grew, the truth is different. Professor Carleton Coon showed (with REAL evidence, not by some abstract theory) that racial differences originate at least from the Homo Erectus branch, long before the Homo Sapiens Sapiens even came into existence. His studies also show that the negro race is at least 200.000 years behind the Aryan Race in skull and brain development: the negro skull has a smaller brain volume, and has thicker cranial bones, enabling the negro to use his head as a weapon. The lower face of a negro projects forward, making his jaw longer than the jaw of an Aryan. The negro jaw is larger and stronger and protrudes outward which, along with lower retreating forehead, gives a facial angle of 68 to 70 degrees as opposed to a facial angle of 80 to 82 degrees for Europeans. A feature of the negro lower jaw is its retention of a vestige of the "simian shelf," a bony region immediately behind the incisors. The simian shelf is a distinguishing characteristic of apes, and can not be found in Aryans.

People who say that skin colour is only a superficial difference could be very wrong: the melanin pigment that colours the negro skin, can also be found in the muscles and the brain. This pigment is also spread in ALL skin layers, not just the upper one.

Negroes have arms and legs which are longer relative to the body weight, similar to an ape. Their nostrils also show ape-like characteristics: they are often turned up, exposing the red inner lining of the mucous membrane. The two bones proper of the nose are occasionally united, as in apes. The negro eye has often a yellowish sclerotic coat over it, similar to a gorilla. The pelvis is narrower and longer as it is in an ape. The ears are roundish, rather small, standing somewhat high and detached thus approaching the simian form. The three curvatures of the spine are less pronounced in the Negro than in the White and thus more characteristic of an ape.

Intellectual

American racial studies show that the IQ's of American negroes are 15 to 20 points below those of American Aryans. These differences are not deducted from one case study, but were repeatedly tested on every branch of the US Military, in every state, county, the US Department of Education, ... for over 40 YEARS! With an average IQ of 85, only 16% of negroes score over 100, while half the White population does. The frontal lobes of the negro brain, responsible for abstract conceptional reasoning, are smaller relative to body weight, less fissured, and less complex than those of the Aryan brain.

Negroes are 6 times as likely to have IQ's of 50 to 70 which put them in the slow learner (retarded) category, while Aryans are ten times more likely to score 130 or over.

Differences between negro and Aryan children increase with chronological age, the gap in performance being largest at the high school and college levels. Racial IQ differences are constantly excused as results of environmental variations, but at least five studies that have attempted to equate socio-economic backgrounds of the two races indicate no significant change in relative results. As environment improves, the negro does better but so does the Aryan. The gap is not decreased. In fact, extensive research by Dr. G.J. McGurk, associate Professor of Psychology at Villanove University, reveals that the gap in intelligence between negroes and Aryans INCREASES where socio-economic levels of both races are raised to the middle classes. Even when negroes and Aryans have the same backgrounds, in terms of family income and childhood advantages, negroes still have average IQ scores 12 to 15 points lower than comparable Aryans. This includes cases where negro children have been adopted by Aryan parents. Their I's may be improved by environment, but they are still closer to their biological parents than their adoptive parents. American Indians, who often live in conditions far worse than American negroes during their entire lives, still consistently outscore them on IQ tests.

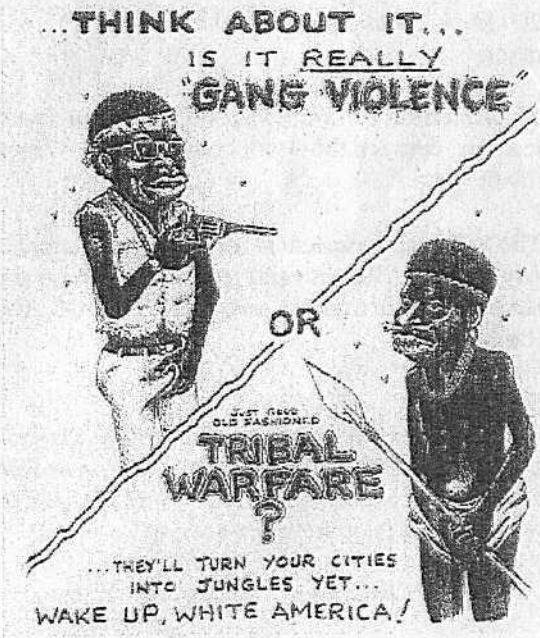
The offspring of interracial marriages tend to have lower IQ's than the Aryan parent.

Aryan Culture

The Aryan Race is responsible for 99% of all discoveries, inventions, etc, while the Aryans only are 10% of the world's population. The Aryans have crossed oceans, harnessed rivers, carved mountains, tamed deserts, colonised the polar area and visited other planets.



Throughout 6.000 years of recorded history, the negroes haven't invented anything. Not even the wheel, a written language, ... Since they aren't able to domesticate any animal or to grow crops, they are in a Palaeolithic level, a level Aryans left thousands of years ago. While even the ancient Egyptians were able to build pyramids, transporting huge pieces of stone, the negro can only transport things by carrying it himself, mostly on the head. Negro houses are made out of mud and straw, the kind of shelter even a beaver or a bird can produce.

We need not mention that the negro is a total failure on the abstract level: math, measurement of time, calendars,... There are no righteous negro philosophers.

Colonisation and post-colonies

Being a superior species, the Aryan Race has colonised all continents. Although the Mongoloid race has also a mentionable culture, superior to the negro culture, Aryans colonised all continents before them.

In the 19th century, the whole African continent was ruled by European nations. And although negroes can be dressed, fed, educated and trained like Aryans, they can and will never be our equals. Aryan man has always searched a compagnon, a soulmate, an equal to search out the secrets of life - but will never find it on this world.

Historical lies

One of the arguments left-winged propaganda uses is that "All men are created equally", a quote from the American constitution. They probably don't know that Thomas Jefferson, the "author" of the American constitution owned over 200 black slaves and never released one. Negroes were possession, not humans.

The American civil war was NOT a quarrel about the negroes, it was a economical war, between the South and the North. The negroes were only used to justify the war.

The Indian caste system is not about wealth, it is about racial purity. The Aryan rulers tried (in vain) to keep their blood pool clean this way. Humanitarian activists are thus not saving needy people, they are helping to extinct a Race.

So what?!

"So what if we interbreed another race?", I heard a woman say during a discussion on racialism. Of course it is your own decision if you interbreed with other races, be it mongoloid, negroid or a mixed species. Bear only in mind our warning. Racial mixing is a point of no return!

AN INTERVIEW WITH DAVID LANE

Heil! Thanks for giving us the chance to interview you for Åsgardsrei magazine.

David Lane: It is always a pleasure to speak to young folk, even with a pen. It will be almost exclusively up to a younger generation to straighten things out. The older people who caused us to reach the abyss by their gullibility, greed, selfishness and stupidity seldom admit they were wrong. That's just human nature. Additionally, most of them have financial investments in the system that destroys us, and greed seems to outweigh all.

It seems that your name will be linked forever with the Brüder Schweigen. Can you tell us what the Brüder Schweigen were all about?

The Brüder were born out of the inescapable fact, and realization that there are no peaceful solutions remaining if we are to preserve our kind as stated in the 14 words.

Every avenue of recourse short of open war has been blocked. The Zionist Jewish octopus which sits astride the whole world controls the courts, the police, the media, the preachers, the teachers, the financial systems, industry and every power point of all the once White nations. They have sentenced the White race to death and they have the power to destroy any man or woman who resists this genocide.

Bob Mathews knew that an example of resistance, even unto death had to be set. So knowing full well that he would die in the struggle he enlisted some men and went to war. Others of us knew also that as the first battalion we would be either killed or imprisoned, but the example had to be set. There can not be a second or a third battalion until there is a first.

On 8 December 1984, Robert Jay Mathews was martyred. He was murdered by ZOG agents. What does his death mean to you personally, and what does it mean to your movement?

To me personally, the death of Bob Mathews was the saddest day of my life. That the greatest man of his generation is not recognized universally by all White people as a hero is a true tragedy. We must not let his sacrifices be in vain.

The Order of the Brüder Schweigen honors Third Reich imagery. Do you feel in any way related to the German people? Do you think that your work is a continuation of the work of our Führer? Do you think that the world will see such a sane nation again?

I first want to make one thing clear. If you go back far enough we White people are all Germans. What we call the Germanic people today, were once called the Teutonic tribes. The Franks for whom France was named were a Teutonic tribe. Even the division of our folk into Celts and Teutons was arbitrary, artificial, and in this age, irrelevant. We have allowed ourselves to be divided by language, titles and geographic boundaries for too long. We are Aryan first and foremost. Being Irish, Polish, French, Swedish, Danish and so on is at best interesting, and all too often leads to fratricidal and totally uncalled for conflict.

Of course in a sense all of us in the struggle are continuing the work of the heroes of the 3rd Reich. While we must realize that no political or religious system returns exactly as before, because different circumstances exist in each area, still the essentials of thought by the 3rd Reich are timeless and immutably true.

You are currently serving 190 years for civil rights violations. But your trials were totally unconstitutional?

It is nothing to get upset about. Tyrants always kill or imprison effective opposition. And of course I can't live to serve 190 years. The unconstitutional trials and absurd sentence have given me just the credibility I needed to teach my messages on race, religion, history and philosophy. I should thank the ZOG, although of course that doesn't mean I don't dream and plot retribution. Evil unpunished and unavenged will continue forever. Terror can only be defeated by a greater terror. And revenge is a dish best served after anticipation.

Of course, everyone knows the great work of the 14 Word press. Can you give us a short biography of the 14 Word Press?

For the success of the 14 Word Press I must thank first of all my good wife Katja, and then my comrade Ron McVan. Katja speaks and writes many languages which of course is invaluable in our worldwide efforts. Additionally, she has made herself an expert on computer so that we can take advantage of the Internet to reach thousands of new readers every day. Meanwhile Ron McVan is, I believe, the foremost authority on our ancient tribal and racial religion of Wotanism. Wotan being he who is called Odin in Scandinavia and Woden in Old-English.

How large is the 14 Word staff, and what does the 14 Word press actually do?

The three of us are the core creative staff, although of course we are grateful for help of all kinds from all over the world.

When we take a look at the right-wing, we notice that there are a lot of different religious convictions fighting for the Cause: Heathens, judeo-christians and even Satanists! How do you feel about this religious diversity?

I've written extensively on the subject and there is far too much involved to do it total justice here. But I'll try to cover some essential points.

First, we cannot share a religion or its Gods with other races. A universalist religion is death of our own kind. If other races are in your temple they will one day be in your bedroom as certainly as the turning of the earth. Universalist religion destroys the senses of uniqueness and value necessary for racial survival. And remember, the very word "catholic" means "universal". Of course the protestant churches are merely offspring of the Catholic Church.

The bible on the other hand is a different and complex story. When the church drove the priests of Wotan and other indigenous Aryan religions underground, they infiltrated the Christian religious orders. These adepts, in what some call the Mystery Religions, then constructed the bible or a coding device to both conceal and preserve the pagan wisdom. For those who understand the codes there is no conflict with Wotanism. However, attempts by the uninitiated to take the supernatural tales of the bible literally lead to something akin to insanity. It should also be noted that the Jews followed the overt philosophy of the Old Testament, which teaches living in the reality of this world and it allowed them to conquer the world. Meanwhile, Aryans were forced, or deceived into following the philosophy of the New Testament and now face possible extinction. That is because the New Testament tells its followers that "His kingdom is not of this world" so don't fight, etc. See John 18 verse 36 for example.

Ron McVan has written a book called Creed of Iron, available from Fourteen Word Press. In my opinion, it is the best religious book the resistances has ever published and I believe it makes an overwhelming case for Wotanism as essential to racial survival.

What do you think of nazi-occultism and the rising trend of satanism in both Europe and the USA and all these new-age groups - wicca, white/black magicians?
The evidence seems clear that members of the Third Reich upper echelon were indeed involved in what you call the occult. Bearing in mind that the word occult just means hidden. They were especially into Wotanism as their promotion of Wagner's operas show.

What you call "New Age Religion", however, has two fundamental and deliberate deceptions. That's not hard to understand when you see how many of the "chosen people" are involved.

The deceptions are these: New Age teaches universalism and they call the Creator by the word "love". The truth is that nature and whatever power behind it that men call God, formed every different race and species. Universalism or mixing destroys what the Creator formed. As for love, the Creator made lions to eat lambs, hawks to eat sparrows and wolves to eat rabbits. There is no love for love, just law law law. Nature's harsh, pitiless yet divine law, with life and victory to the cunning, the strong and the determined. Conversely for the weak, the lazy, the stupid and the unfit there is well deserved extinction.

I find it rather strange that the Germanic god WOTAN is being pushed forward as the "replacement" of the jewish Christ. Don't you think that all Aryans should start to worship their own (pre-christian gods)? In my eyes, Roman or Greek mythology contains just as much esoteric wisdom as Germanic mythology.
You are correct that there are messages in all our ancient religions, including the Roman, the Celtic and others such as in Luthania and what is now called Eastern Europe.

Hercules and his 12 labors, Zeus and 12 lesser dieties and Wotan with 12 lesser Gods and Goddesses are for example a scenario found in all Aryan religion. It represents among other things the sun and 12 signs of the Zodiac. Jesus and his 12 apostles are copied from this ancient scenario. David or Solomon and
